

GROCERY FOR THE SOUL

You've just got some food. Weekend is always a busy time. After our job is done for the week, we must fill our kitchen with goods in order to keep our bodies in good condition. This observation has something to teach about other kinds of groceries. Your soul also needs food. As the body needs proteins, vitamins, minerals — so too the your soul needs special supplements to keep it healthy. Of course, you can't find this kind of food on the shelves of a supermarket.

Then, where can you find it? People are really hungry, seeking everywhere. They are eating anything they can find, but they still not satisfied. Some are trying new religions, new life styles, but they still experience spiritual starvation.

Where is the grocery store to get the spiritual bread that truly nourished my soul?

Many years ago a whole crowd of people were asking a man for this food: "Sir, they said, from now on give us this bread."

"I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty."

The true spiritual food is Jesus. He can come personally into your heart and fill you with the only true food that can give you eternal life.

"Here I am! I stand the at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me."
